

Mike Brown

Chief Operating Officer, BAA Heathrow

Personal details

Nationality

British

Education

The Queen's University of Belfast

Qualifications

BSc(Econ) Honours Degree
Masters in Business Administration

Career summary

Mike was appointed Chief Operating Officer, BAA Heathrow in September 2008. Prior to this Mike was Chief Operating Officer at London Underground Limited who he has been with since joining their management development programme in 1990.

Mike comes to BAA with a proven track record of managing change and delivering real improvements in a commercial and politically sensitive environment, with the ability to drive performance to rapidly achieve results.

Key dates

1990 – 2008	Various senior director roles, London Underground Limited
1987 – 1989	Brand Management, Ranks Hovis McDougall plc